

Tokyo-Kyoto Places to Visit

Tokyo Sky Tree: The world's highest free-standing broadcasting tower in Sumida, Tokyo. It has reached its tallest structure in Japan in 2010 and reached its full height of 634.0 metres (2080ft) in March 2011, making it the tallest tower in the world, with cutting-edge Japanese building technology supporting it and ensuring safety.

Ginza, Yanaka: Ginza Yanaka offers historical side of Tokyo where mostly known for its modern and futuristic side with high-tech and skyscrapers. Yanaka area is a true hidden gem which is located in the central Tokyo, yet has an unspoiled atmosphere and local vibrations.

Inokashira Onshi Park: It is one of the largest parks in Tokyo with a vast space including a pond, zoo, etc. and a popular spot for cherry blossoms and autumn leaves viewing. Located in Tokyo, Kichijoji where a lot of trendy and stylish cafes and shops gather. The area has great access to Shibuya and Shinjuku, but has much more chilled and local atmosphere. Anime studio, Studio Ghiburi Musium is located at the tip of the park. You can purchase tickets in advanced.

Harajuku: Harajuku has been one of the most popular districts to visit in Tokyo, the biggest trend of 2017, “Instagram-Worthy” cafes, sweets and drinks, and a lot of new shops have recently opened with creative snacks and drinks.

Tokyo Bethel: There is an opportunity to visit Bethel among Jehovah Witness during the Tokyo stay and if you wish to visit there please notify before the trip for making an arrangement. 4-7-1 Nakashinden EBINA CITY KANAGAWA-PREF 243-0496 JAPAN +81 46-233-0005

Imperial Palace & East Garden (皇居): Tokyo Imperial Palace 皇居 is the main residence of the Emperor of Japan. Except on Jan 2 (New Year’s Greeting) and Dec 23 (Emperor’s Birthday), the palace buildings and inner gardens are not open to the public. Only on both specific dates, visitors are able to enter the inner palace grounds and see the members of the Imperial Family, who make several public appearances on a balcony. The Imperial Palace East Gardens 皇居東御苑, are a part of the inner palace area and are open to the public. Opening Hours Daily except Monday & Friday 09:00am – 4:00pm

Kabukichō (舞伎町) is an entertainment and red-light district in north east Shinjuku beyond Yasukuni-dōri Avenue. It is very famous for hostess bars, host bars, love hotels, shops, restaurants, and nightclubs, and is often called the “Sleepless Town”. The district’s name comes from late-1940s plans to build a kabuki theatre: although the theatre was never built due to financial difficulties, the name stuck.

Nakamise: Located just before Sensoji after Kaminarimon or “Thunder Gate”, a massive paper lantern dramatically painted in vivid red-and-black tones to suggest thunderclouds and lightening, Nakamise is one of the oldest shopping centers in Japan. Apart from typical Japanese souvenirs such as yukata, keychains and folding fans, various traditional local snacks from the Asakusa area are sold along the Nakamise.

Kyoto and Nara one day Bus tour ($83) Sightsee through Kansai’s most scenic areas, seeing iconic landmarks in Nara and Kyoto in one day, without the hassle of changing trains or getting lost. With pickup times in either Osaka or Kyoto, board a convenient tour bus to visit the 1000 vermilion gates of Fushimi-Inari Shrine, scenic Nara Park, beautiful Arashiyama, and more. Visit Kyoto and Nara’s most famous sights in 1 day See 2 UNESCO World

Heritage Sites: Todaiji Temple and Kasuga Taisha Shrine Enjoy live commentary in English or Chinese Round-trip bus fare from Kyoto or Namba